

Our clients perform better.

Corvis is an international online marketing agency based in Vienna. We specialize in helping our clients improve their performance. We work with over 35 advertising channels to do this and develop conversion-optimized content and web solutions.

We are currently recruiting for the following position in Vienna:

Graphic design internship (f/m/d)

38.5 hours a week, at least 6 months, 1030 Vienna

Your responsibilities

- You will provide our creative team with support in designing social media content, ad creatives and advertising materials
- You will work together with our Motion Designer to create 2D animations, motion titles, lower thirds and character animations
- You will independently create presentations which comply with the corporate style guides

Your profile

- You are either currently enrolled in a course in the field of graphics/new media or you wish to develop further skills in these fields
- You love graphic design and typography and you really enjoy working in the digital field
- You are confident in using the Adobe Creative Suite, in particular Photoshop; Illustrator & InDesign
- You are interested in web design and app design and would like to learn a lot more about this field
- You aim to continue to develop professionally and love inspiring other people around you with your passion
- If you are interested in online marketing and social media too, then this is the right opportunity for you!

What we offer you

- The opportunity to develop a final dissertation in the field of graphics with us
- Interesting, varied tasks for renowned national and international clients
- You will be working with a dynamic, motivated and friendly team and will be treated as an equal. The team places great value on open communication
- Ongoing personal development and further training opportunities, as well as mentoring
- An annual pass for Wiener Linien (public transport in Vienna)
- We are ideally looking for someone who may be suitable for permanent employment after the internship

We can offer you this position for 38.5 hours per week at a monthly gross salary of EUR 600.

We are, of course, prepared to consider increased remuneration depending on your qualifications and prior experience.

Does this sound like something you would be interested in? We look forward to getting to know you.

Please send your complete application, including work samples and salary expectations, to bewerbung@corvis.at, FAO Martin Siuda
